NATURES WARNING

Barre People Must Recognize and Heed
It.

Kidney ills come quietly—mysteriously.
But nature always warns you through the urine.
Notice the kidney secretions.
See if the color is unhealthy—
If there are settlements and sediment.
Pills.
To ward off Bright's disease or diabetes.

Doan's have done great work in Barre.
Norman V. Sprague, 29 Branch street, Barre, Vt., says: "I was subject for six years to attacks of kidney trouble, and I believe the complaint was brought on by a strain. I had pains in my back and was led to believe that my kidneys were out of order by too frequent passages of the kidney secretions. I was only able to lift anything. It was only with great difficulty that I could regain an erect position. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at E. A. Drown's drugstore, and their effect was wonderful.
The pain in my back soon ceased and the kidney secretions no longer bothered me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.

COULDN'T EAT BUT HE SANG.

Herbert O. Sprague of Woodford Victim of Peculiar Malady.

Bennington, March 21.—Herbert O.
Sprague died at his home in Woodford at one o'clock Sunday afternoon. Several weeks ago while in usual health a swelling formed on his neck, to which at first but little attention was paid.
The swelling continued to grow and within a few days was of abnormal size. One physician said it was a flesh tumor, another a cancer, another a simple swelling of the neck glands. Until within a few days of his death the deceased was not in great pain, but could not breathe well while lying down. The last two weeks of his life he would not take any nourishment but a spoonful of cold water with a trace of salt in it. He retained consciousness to the last and but a few minutes before death he weakly sang a verse of the hymn, "I am Going Home to Die No More."

Mr. Sprague was born in Woodford January 17, 1863, and had always lived there. He was a man of kind disposition and had no enemies. Besides the widow he leaves one sister, Mrs.
George W. Knapp.

The funeral will be held from the Ferdinand chapel at one o'clock Wednesday. Prayer at the house at 12:30.
Burial will be in the Woodford City cemetery.

About the State

A year ago Bert Norton of Bolton was shot in the leg. The bullet was not removed until recently, after blood poisoning had set in, and Mr. Norton is in a serious condition.

Ernest, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Blair of Sheldon Springs, died suddenly Wednesday March 15, as the result of eating strychne tablets, that had accidentally been left within his reach.

Fred Currier of Weybridge, who with his brother operates a wood sawing machine, while at work last Tuesday, feeding the machine, in some manner made a misstep and fell against the machine so that the three fingers on his left hand were cut off at the first joint.

Charles Buffington of Bellows Falls drove up to Richardson Brothers' shoe store, and as the horse he was driving was a spirited one and as he did not dare to leave it he tried to throw a pair of shoes inside to be repaired. He missed his aim, the bundle going through the store window.

Rev. Dr. Gibbs Bradin, for 15 years, from 1891 to 1906, pastor of the First Baptist church at Rutland, has been recommended by a special committee of 15 of the First Baptist church at New Bedford, Mass., as pastor, and it is expected that the church will extend a call to him.

Mrs. Charles Darwin, historian general and charter member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and for years vice president general of the Children of the American Revolution, died recently in Washington. Mrs. Darwin was the daughter of William F. Bascom, at one time principle of Middlebury seminary and a prominent lawyer there.

The authorities in charge of the Franklin county jail have organized with the object of undertaking a systematic working of the prisoners, something like the idea carried out at the Washington county jail in Montpelier by Sheriff F. H. Tracy. The organization in Franklin county for this purpose consists of assistant Judge William Greene, secretary; assistant Judge Ellis W. Foster, treasurer; James C. Towle, manager; Sheriff George C. Holmes, assistant manager.

Congressman Frank Plumley of Northfield, Gov. J. A. Mead of Rutland and Joseph A. DeBoer of Montpelier will be among the speakers at the annual reception and banquet of the Vermont Society of New York at the Hotel Manhattan, Saturday evening, March 25. The society has also secured Governor Dix and Hon. John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American union in Washington, D. C. Vermont songs will be sung, including a new one composed by Mrs. C. L. Cole of New Haven.

It is understood that the law regulating the closing of places of business Sunday is to be strictly enforced in Burlington. It is said that during the past few months, and especially about election time, many places were allowed to keep open Sunday, such as candy stores, bootblack parlors, and small dealers in the north end and on Church street. Mayor Burke says he has made repeated complaints to the proper authorities that places of business were open on Sunday but has been unable to get any satisfaction.

That the good fishing in Otter creek between Proctor and Vergennes is due to the forethought and efforts of a few public spirited citizens in 1819 is known to but few persons. At that time Daniel Chipman, interested committees from Middlebury, Salisbury, Whiting and Leister, who May 12 went to Chimney point, camped all night and the following day drew seines, getting many varieties of lake fish not found in the river above Vergennes falls. They brought the fish to Middlebury in barrels, changing water many times in transit and dumped them above the falls at Middlebury. At this time the only fish in the river were trout, bull heads, rock bass and eels. Of the different varieties secured, pickerel and perch are all that now remain. The fish thrived well in their new home and are a much finer quality than those secured in the lake. The committee from Middlebury consisted of Daniel and George Chipman, James Satterlee, Harvey Wilson, Daniel and Chauncey Fuller.

OF AN OLD FAMILY.

William Hendryx Downs, Who Died in Bennington.

Bennington, March 21.—After a long illness William Hendryx Downs passed peacefully away Sunday morning.
He was born in Bennington and was descended from good old Revolutionary stock, his maternal great grandfather having served as a soldier in the war for independence.

He was one of Bennington's most respected residents and scrupulously honest in all his dealings. His general and hospitable manners won for him a large circle of friends. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. F. Robinson of this town, and a sister, Mrs. Candace Merchant of Cedar Falls, Iowa. One son, Hubert W. Downs, died several years ago.

Therefore, you are hereby notified to appear before said Court at the time and place aforesaid, and contest the probate of said will, if you have cause.

Given under my hand at Montpelier, in said District, this 12th day of March, A. D. 1911, MAR 14-28
